2. [Empathy and Warning] –

Why You Keep Falling Short Of The Big Win

You've been there.

Two long days of focus, riding the highs and lows, navigating every all-in... only to end up in 15th place.

The payout covers a few more entries, sure – but that's not what you came for.

You came for the moment.

Whether it's your local casino's €200 weekend tournament or that €500 series you've been eyeing, you know you belong at that final table.

The photo with the trophy.

The wire transfer that lets you surprise your spouse with a dream vacation.

The story you'd be telling for years.

But this dream keeps slipping through your fingers.

Just three months ago, you were at 9th place. A month before that, 11th. You thought you were on to something.

But suddenly, you sit at 10th. Then 8th. And now at 15th.

So the thoughts creep in:

- “Why do I keep falling short of a big win?”
- “Is it bad luck... or am I missing something I can't see?”
- “Am I just not talented enough?”

What Separates Actual Winners From “Almost Winners” (It’s Not What You Think)

Winning big has nothing to do with grinding like a full-time pro, memorizing every solver output, or being born with poker talent.

The Real Problem Is...

You can’t fix what you can’t see.

Just think about it – when you bust out of a tournament, what do you focus on?

The final hand, probably. The bad beat. The “obvious” bluff you missed.

But the truth is, you lost the game hours ago.

Because the mistakes that are keeping you from winning aren’t the obvious ones – they’re the ones you don’t even know you’re making.

But what if someone could show you exactly where those are?

3. [Introduce the solution] –

Here's the guy who figured it out.

Meet Enrico Camosci.

Italy's undisputed top-ranked MTT player, with millions in winnings across the world's toughest fields.

But years ago, he was struggling and stuck just like you. So this future champion made a decision most players never even consider:

He tore his game apart, one hand at a time, and rebuilt it around his own unique understanding of the game.

What came out of that process was a diagnostic system that's so effective, it took him straight to the top.

And now, that same system will be available to you.

Imagine...

... Walking into your next tournament with total confidence

... Never wondering what to do next

... Finally hitting that big score you've been chasing

... Your friends watching you bag that trophy

That's what happens when you can see and fix the leaks that have been holding you back.

7. [Pricing Table] –

What This Would Normally Cost You (And Why We're Not Charging That):

Service	Individual Value	Your Price
---------	------------------	------------

Full Game Analysis	€500	€500
Personalized Leak Report	€250	Included
1-on-1 Strategy Session	€300	Included
Personalized Study Plan	€200	Included
Total Value	€1,250	€500

8. [Pricing Conversation] –

Just think about how much time and money you've already invested.

- The hours you'll waste this month watching random YouTube videos that contradict each other
- Tournament entries adding up... without getting any closer to that big win
- Poker books and random tips that sound good but don't seem to help when you're actually playing
- You're probably throwing away hundreds of euros every month on the same mistakes over and over

Every tournament you play without fixing your biggest leak is another buy-in down the drain.

And you don't have time to waste on trial and error. Between work, family, and life, your poker time is precious.

That's exactly why this system works.

This isn't more random BS advice.

This is getting direct answers about YOUR specific game from someone who's already figured it out.

To get this level of personalized analysis from a top MTT professional normally costs thousands in private coaching sessions.

So Why €500 Instead of €1,250+?

We're not gonna lie to you – we offer this service at a fraction of its full value because it serves a bigger purpose.

It's a springboard towards working long-term with clients through our main training program.

The Game Evaluation System™ is designed to give you results and to show you exactly how we work, so you can decide whether you're a fit for the full program.

But there's absolutely no pressure to do anything beyond this.

Take the analysis and implement it yourself?
Perfect.

14. [FAQ] –

Frequently Asked Questions

“What if I'm not smart enough for this?”

This system isn't about being smarter than everyone else at the table. If you can follow a recipe, you can follow our personalized plan.

We break everything down into simple, actionable steps that work regardless of your background or natural talent level.

“What if I'm just not naturally talented at poker?”

The players consistently winning aren't more "Naturally talented." They just have a better system.

“What if I’m not a high-stakes player?”

That's exactly why we created this – to help dedicated players like you fix the leaks that are keeping you from winning the tournaments you already play.

IT managers, entrepreneurs, and other working professionals use our system all the time.

“What if I don’t play that many tournaments?”

Perfect. A few recent tournaments are all we need. Even if you only play weekends, we can spot the patterns holding you back.

“Is Enrico the one who does the analysis?”

Not exactly – but that's a good thing. Let us explain.

Your session is handled by Enrico's top-performing student in the previous year – personally trained, battle-tested, and handpicked by Enrico himself.

But why not Enrico?

Well, he's busy playing €100K tournaments and battling the toughest regs in the world. That's because he's not a retired-pro-turned-coach.

There's a concept in learning called the “protégé effect” where teaching something forces you to understand it on a deeper level.

You spot holes you wouldn't have noticed on your own – you tighten your thinking and sharpen your edge.

That's why Enrico coaches – teaching forces him to constantly refine his strategies and make him a better, stronger player.

This means you're learning strategies that work RIGHT NOW, not recycled concepts from years ago.

So essentially, we've created something better than Enrico analyzing every hand himself: a coach who has internalized his live, pressure-tested methodology and can give you their undivided attention...

...While Enrico continues crushing high-stakes and evolving the system to stay ahead of the curve.

“What happens after I submit my hands?”

You'll be contacted within 72 hours to schedule your review.

15. [Earnings Disclaimer] –

Earnings Disclaimer: Poker is a game of skill and variance. While we've worked hard to create the best system that maximizes a player's earning potential, it's still highly dependent on the players themselves – the skills, time, and effort they put into this. This offer is for educational purposes only.
